

New Richmond Area Ambulance 2020 Calendar Raffle Rules and Regulations

In an effort to generate additional funding for New Richmond Area Ambulance Service (NRAAS) to assist in the financial obligations of training and updating emergency medical equipment, the staff members of NRAAS have developed a yearly calendar fundraiser in the following fashion:

- Calendar raffle sponsored by New Richmond Area Ambulance Service, License No: R0038132A-85890.
- A maximum of 1,000 calendars will be printed and each calendar will be printed with a sequential number that corresponds with a raffle ticket. The raffle ticket will have a detachable stub with the space for the purchaser to identify themselves with:
 - ❖ Name
 - ❖ Address
 - ❖ Phone Number
 - ❖ Email Address
- Cost of calendar will be $20.00.
- Upon purchase of a calendar/raffle ticket, the purchaser will write the identification required on the stub and return it to the NRAAS representative seller who will in turn, return it to the Raffle Committee to be submitted into the monthly drawing.
- At no time will the number of calendar/raffle tickets sold exceed 1,000.
- This raffle will begin at 00:00 on January 1st 2020 and be completed at midnight December 31st 2020.
- All calendar sales must be completed prior to 00:00 on January 1st 2020, regardless of the total number of calendars sold at that time.
- All participant identification raffle stubs must be submitted to the Raffle Committee prior to the beginning of the contest to ensure fair practice to all participants.
- All funds collected through the sale of the calendars will be deposited into a bank account specific to this contest.
- All contest actions will follow the regulatory requirements of a 501(c)(3) standards and remain a not-for-profit venture, where by all generated funding will be used towards NRAAS:
 - ❖ Education
 - ❖ Emergency Medical Equipment
 - ❖ Station Equipment and Amenities
 - ❖ Uniform Supplements

New Richmond Area Ambulance 2020 Calendar Raffle Rules and Regulations

- All prizes will be drawn daily at 12:00pm and will take place at New Richmond Area Ambulance, 344 South Arch Ave, New Richmond, WI 54017.
- The drawing procedure will be as follows:
 - ❖ A participant's identification stub will be blindly drawn from a collection of all participants stubs for each day of the month.
 - ❖ The winning participant's identification will be recorded specifically to the date on which the participant's name was drawn. By doing this, the participant's winnings can be recorded at the same time.
 - ❖ The winning participant's identification stub will be returned to the collection of all participant identification stubs for additional chances to win.
 - ❖ All participant stubs will be blindly mixed and the drawing process will be performed again.
 - ❖ This process will repeat itself until each day of the subsequent month has had a successful drawing to identify a winning participant.
- Raffle winners will be notified using information completed on the raffle ticket. Winners will also be listed on www.nr-ems.com/calendar.
- A good faith effort will be made to award all prizes. If unable to contact winner with information provided by raffle ticket, prizes will be held and used for future fundraising.
- Once all winners have been identified, the Raffle Committee will draft a check for prize payment to each of the winning participants. If the winning participant's prize is to include more than a monetary value, (gift cards, gift certificates, etc..) this will be included at the time for distribution of winnings.
- All prizes and winnings will be mailed or distributed prior to the end of the second week of each month.
